

Emil-Krebs-Gasse 10
8400 Winterthur

(English)

Exhibition conditions Jungkunst

The non-profit association Jungkunst promotes young Swiss artists and has been organizing the long weekend of art and music in Winterthur since 2006. At Jungkunst, 20 selected young artists from all parts of Switzerland are given the opportunity to show their work in the field of visual arts to a wide audience. The exhibition is accompanied by a program of music and dance.

Service Jungkunst

- CHF 500 payment per artistic position
- Large platform and mediation
- Media presence
- Personal support from the curation team before and during the exhibition
- All works are insured against damage
- Handling of art sales
- Exhibition infrastructure (walls, hanging material, lighting, etc.)
- Catering during the festival

We take

- 40% commission on all works sold

Service artists

- Installation concept of their own work in collaboration with the curator
- Transportation, set-up and dismantling are carried out independently by the artists
- Technology (projector, sound etc.) is organized by the artists

Participation and the conditions are set out in a written contract for both parties.

Status: January 2024